JAPAN INDIGNANT

JAPANESE MALTREATED IN SAN FRANCISCO.

MAY CAUSE MUCH TROUBLE

Japanese Children Expelled From Public Schools—Japanese Restaurants Boycotted—International Complications Feared.

Washington. — Friday's Cabinet meeting lasted two and one-half hours and was attended by all the members except Secretary Shaw and Postmaster General Cortelyou. Among the important matters discussed was the situation growing out of the anti-American sentiment in Japan and the exclusion of Japanese children from the public schools of San Francisco.

It was stated by a member of the Cabinet after the meeting that the general opinion of the members was that the Japanese situation was exceedingly grave and would require the most delicate treatment to avoid an open rupture.

Secretary Metcalf of the Department of Commerce and Labor will go to San Francisco at once to investigate and make a full report on the situation as affecting the Japanese there.

It developed that the proceedings initiated in San Francisco to compel the authorities to receive Japanese pupils into the public schools were directed by the Department of Justice.

Japanese restaurant keepers have suffered indignities in San Francisco as well as Japanese school children, according to reports received by the Japanese Ambassador, Viscount Aoki, from Japanese consular officers in that city.

At least seven or eight reports have been made concerning a boycott inaugurated against Japanese restaurants in the California city. Agents have been posted to prevent patrons from entering the restaurants, and at several restaurants stones have been thrown and windows broken, according to the statements of Japanese officials.

These cases have been brought to the attention of Secretary Root by Viscount Aoki, who says that it is with great reluctance he brings to the attention of the general government demonstrations against Japan which are purely local in their nature. When asked if complaints had reached him from Japanese in any other part of California outside of San Francisco, or from other Pacific coast states, Viscount Aoki replied that all the trouble had been confined to the one city.

The President feels that every effort within his power should be exerted to see that all the treaty rights claimed by the Japanese for their people residing in the United States should be respected and protected.

The determination to send Secretary Metcalf to San Francisco was one of the requests made by Viscount Aoki, the Japanese ambassador, who, at a conference with Secretary Root asked that the Japanese subjects in California be accorded their full rights under the treaty of 1894, including that of the children to attend the public schools of San Francisco.

The dispatch of a cabinet officer on such a mission, it was argued, would demonstrate to the Japanese the evident sincerity of this government in dealing with the whole subject, and its desire to show that every effort is being made to get at the facts.

FOR BETTER ROADS.

Colorado Legislature Will Be Requested to Act.

Denver.—Headed by Thomas F. Walsh, prominent business men have banded together to advance the good roads movement in Colorado. At an informal meeting held in the Denver Club on Wednesday night, and at which Mr. Walsh was present, it was decided to ask the Legislature at its coming session to provide for an appropriation of $1,000,000 to be expended in building good roads in the state.

Those who agreed to the proposition affixed their signatures to a paper in which they pledged themselves to take an active part in getting the money required.

The bill proposed for its passage is one which will call for an appropriation of the sum mentioned, although this amount need not be set aside in one year. It provides that when a county applies for money from this state fund it shall agree to give an equal sum to that asked for out of its own treasury, so that if the measure should become a law it in reality would provide for the expenditure of $2,000,000 upon the public highways. Those interested in the scheme with Mr. Walsh comprise some of the wealthiest business and professional men in the city, and their arguments before the Legislature will not lack weight.

Sixty-Five Years Married.

Denver.—For the first time in over a year, Rev. Orin Richardson and his aged wife sat in the South Broadway church Sunday forenoon and listened to the words which told of their sixty-five years of blissful married life. Although both are staunch Christians, Mr. Richardson having for years carried the gospel of Christ to many, they have been unable to attend church for over a year past, and yesterday on the sixty-fifth anniversary of their wedding, they decided that they would attend at least once more as a fitting celebration for the long years of service in the work of the Lord.

BUILT UP HER HEALTH

SPEEDY CURE OF MISS GOODE

She Is Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and Writes Gratefully to Mrs. Pinkham.

For the wonderful help that she has found Miss Cora Goode, 255 E. Chicago Avenue, Chicago, Ill., believes it her duty to write the following letter for publication, in order that other women afflicted in the same way may be benefited as she was. Miss Goode is president of the Bryn Mawr Lawn Tennis Club of Chicago. She writes;

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I tried many different remedies to build up my system, which had become run down from loss of proper rest and unreasonable hours, but nothing seemed to help me. Mother is a great advocate of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles, having used it herself some years ago with great success. So I began to take it, and in less than a month I was able to be out of bed and out of doors, and in three months I was entirely well. Really I have never felt so strong and well as I have since."

No other medicine has such a record of cures of female troubles as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating (or flatulence), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, can be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Her experience is very great, and she gives the benefit of it to all who stand in need of wise counsel. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge. Address, Lynn, Mass.

SAVED THE CUSTOMER TROUBLE

Neat Way Waiter Secured Tip from "Close" Man.

There is a waiter in a Washington cafe, who is the acme of polite attention, endeavoring in every way to save his customers trouble. The other day a man came in who was sized up by John as probably a "little close," but the service was fully up to the standard. The bill came to 89 cents, and the man handed over a dollar bill.

John then proceeded to help the man into his coat.

"Where's my change?" the customer asked.

"Change, sah? Dar ain't none—dat was mah tip, tank yo', sah!" John said with a bow.

"But I hadn't given it to you," the man protested.

"Oh course not, sah. Ah wouldn't 'low yo' ter go ter all dat trouble, sah!" John said, with another bow, and the man went out, looking a trifle dazed.

NERVOUS COLLAPSE

Sinking Spells, Headaches and Rheumatism all Yield to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mrs. Lizzie Williams, of No. 416 Cedar street, Quincy, Ill., says: "Ever since I had nervous prostration, about thirteen years ago, I have had periodical spells of complete exhaustion. The doctor said my nerves were shattered. Any excitement or unusual activity would throw me into a state of lifelessness. At the beginning my strength would come back in a moderate time after each attack, but the period of weakness kept lengthening until at last I would lie helpless as many as three hours at a stretch. I had dizzy feelings, palpitation of the heart, misery after eating, hot flashes, nervous headaches, rheumatic pains in the back and hips. The doctor did me so little good that I gave up his treatment, and really feared that my case was incurable."

"When I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills my appetite grew keen, my food no longer distressed me, my nerves were quieted to a degree that I had not experienced for years and my strength returned. The fainting spells left me entirely after I had used the third box of the pills, and my friends say that I am looking better than I have done for the past fifteen years."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are recommended for diseases that come from impoverished blood such as anemia, rheumatism, debility and disorders of the nerves such as neuralgia, nervous prostration and partial paralysis. They have cured the most stubborn indigestion. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills agree with the most delicate stomach, quiet all nervousness, stir up every organ to do its proper work and give strength that lasts. Sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Excellent Cleaner.

An excellent cleaner for guitars, violins and other stringed musical instruments is made of one-third each of linseed oil, turpentine and water. These shaken together in a bottle form an emulsion or cream. Rub the instrument with a cloth dampened in the cream. Wipe dry and polish with a woolen cloth.

Saves the Furniture.

When arranging china jars on polished furniture cut a piece of thick balze to the exact size of the base and pink it out at the edges, choosing some dull color which will barely show. This neat mat will effectually preserve the polished surface and will never be an eyesore.

Beware of Cold Feet.

Never go to bed with cold feet. For nothing in the world is the hot water bottle a greater boon. The old-fashioned soapstone or a flatiron, a small stone jug—though the latter never seems quite safe—anything is better than cold feet.

A good man should have good manners. Nicht wahr?
